E. S. LORENZ.

(Melody in 2d Tenor.)

1. Ye who are roaming the plain of un-rest, Sighing, dis-sat-is-fied,
2. Oft-en I've roamed o'er that same dreary plain Sighing for what I could
3. Earth's shallow pleasures go out with the night, Leaving behind on - ly
4. Struggle no longer for things that de - cay, Strive for the treasures that lone-ly, de-prest, List to the song that is thrilling my breast:

 nev - er ob-tain, Now thro' my Sav-ior my wish-es I gain;
 sad-ness and blight; Naught but a shadow is world-ly de-light, - fade not a - way; Then shall you sing thro' e - ter-ni - ty's day:

CHORUS.

Je - sus' sat - is - fies me!..... Je - sus sat - is - fies Je - sus... .. sat - is - fies me! Je - sus sat - is - fies me! Je - sus.... sat - is - fies me!

This is my song all the day long, Je - sus sat-is-fies me!.....
 Je - sus.... sat-is-fies me!
