77. Quit You like Men.

HANNAH THURSTON.

IRA B. WILSON.

1. Brave men are needed for Christ to-day, Out where the battle is long;
2. Seeking not ease nor applause of men, En-ter the fight against wrong;
3. What tho' you suffer, do not complain, Cheer your faint heart with a song;
4. Steadfast, unyielding, the bat-tle press, You to God's ar-m-y be - long;

Forth at the summons, the call o-bey, Quit you like men, be strong!
 Suff'ring de-feat but to rise again, Quit you like men, be strong!
 Let not your courage grow slack and wane, Quit you like men, be strong!
 Clad in his ar-mor of righteousness, Vict'ry's as-sured, be strong!

CHORUS.

Quit you like men, be strong, Hard is the fight and long,
 be strong, and long,

ff

Onward and fail not, Forward and quail not, Quit you like men, be strong.
